RE: Candidate for Consideration on the Salisbury Zoo Commission

The Salisbury Zoo Commission has been working towards adding some new members to its Board. With the recent retirement of Sam Walker, the Zoo Commission would like to have Brian Raygor to be considered for the Commission to take Sam's place. The Commission has interviewed Mr. Raygor and has approved his nomination to be presented to the Mayor and City Council.

Mr. Raygor has been working with us at the Zoo for a few years. He currently serves as the Supervisor of Science for the Wicomico County Public Schools. As such, he has worked with the Zoo's Education Department to help develop environmental education programs for the students. He also works with the LEAF program for 4th grade students. Brian represents a great opportunity for the Zoo to stay in contact with the science education needs of the regional students and schools. He is a graduate of the Salisbury University and the Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. He has received a number of awards for his excellence in teaching.

I feel that Mr. Raygor would make a good addition to the Salisbury Zoo Commission.

Thank you for your consideration of this candidate.

Sincerely,

Joel M. Hamilton,
Salisbury Zoo Director
