PRESS RELEASE

October 4, 2017

Members of the Salisbury Police Department will be participating in their inaugural Coffee With A Cop event on Wednesday, October 4, 2017.

Wednesday, October 4, 2017, has been designated as a national Coffee With A Cop day and the members of the Salisbury Police Department will be participating in this event for the first time. This event will be held at the Rise Up Coffee located on East College Avenue in Salisbury from 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm.

Coffee With A Cop began in 2011 in Hawthorne, California when members of the Hawthorne Police Department were looking for ways to connect with the community they serve. The initiative is now hosted in all fifty states and the program has expanded into Canada, Europe, Africa and Australia.

Tomorrow's event will be a relaxed and informal opportunity for community members to talk about issues in our City with the members of the Salisbury Police Department. Chief Barbara Duncan stated "Building trust in policing is an important part of serving and protecting our City. Sharing a cup of coffee and a conversation is a great way for our officers to meet our community members one-on-one to strengthen the bonds of trust we work hard to establish on a daily basis."
