1. Incurs no initial capital costs (with option for the City to provide initial capital if desired)
2. Achieves significant long-term cost savings.
3. Achieves a guarantee for cost savings
4. Maintains consistent and reasonable levels of occupant comfort

5. Maintains consistent levels of building functionality
6. Captures additional benefits that may directly result from energy related services and capital improvements, such as environmental protection, hazardous material disposal or recycling, improved occupant comfort, reduced maintenance need, improved indoor air quality, additional building improvements etc.

Notes:

A - Rated Capacity is computed as (GPM of station with largest pump out of service) x 24 x 60

B - Pump rating is 3000 gpm at 37' TDH. A review of pump and system curves suggest that the actual operating point is significantly less (approx 1750 gpm at 53.5' TDH).
