PRESS RELEASE
February 13, 2018 (11:00 a.m.)
(UPDATE: Armed Robbery Investigation)

Detectives from the Salisbury Police Department and agents from the Federal Bureau of Investigation continue their investigation into the January 22nd armed robbery of an armored truck driver.

At approximately 7:15 a.m. on January 22, 2018, Salisbury police officers and detectives responded to the 1100 block of Mt. Hermon Road (SECU) for a reported armed robbery. The investigation revealed that a male armored truck driver was robbed while filling an ATM machine with cash. The suspects fled the scene on foot toward Rt 50.

Further investigation revealed that the Loomis Armored truck driver arrived at SECU in an effort to fill the ATM machine with currency. While filling the machine, the driver was approached by what was described as 3 male suspects who were all armed with handguns. The suspects immediately demanded currency while binding the drivers hands. The suspects stole the driver’s company issued handgun as well as an undisclosed amount of currency before fleeing on foot.

UPDATE

Detectives have been able to obtain an audio recording of the suspects as they committed the robbery. While listening to the recording, the suspects can be heard talking about what to steal, and how to bind the victim/driver. The suspects can also be heard ordering the driver not to move and to be still. As detectives continue this investigation, the Salisbury Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation requests that anyone who recognizes the voices of the suspects in the audio recording or the person depicted in the still images below to contact the Salisbury Police Department at (410)548-3165, Crime Solvers at (410)548-1776 or the FBI tip line at (410)265-8080. With the assistance of Crime Solvers, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Loomis, the reward for information leading to the identification and arrest of the suspects involved has been increased to $50,000.
