3 August 2018

Dear Mayor Day,

I am very interested in joining the Friends Of Poplar Hill Mansion Board. Both my father (James T. Truitt II) and mother (Elizabeth "Bette" Truitt) have served on the board. My father was also a member of the Wicomico County Historical Society. It would be my honor to follow in their footsteps and help my home town of Salisbury prosper through the outstanding programs the Friends of Poplar Hill Mansion supports. As a proud lifetime Salisburian, I consider it my priority not only to learn more about the history of this beautiful area but also to help preserve its culture by educating others. The Poplar Hill Mansion is an important piece of that task, and I would welcome the opportunity to work with you and others to bolster funding and actions to emphasize this gorgeous and meaningful property.

Very Respectfully,
Tom Truitt

- Synchronized an online budget matrix to gauge allocation of personnel and dedicate appropriate funding over a four year period
- Assessed employee skill levels and distributed work load equitably
- Streamlined logistical processes to immediately respond to customer needs
- Advised junior translators, reporters, and public speakers on linguistic challenges, writing styles, and methods of presentation to optimize the impact of their final product
- Researched and populated language data bases to expeditiously provide current information on languages, situation reports, and military logistics to U.S. policy makers, military commanders, and other members of the U.S. Intelligence Community
- Networked to coordinate itineraries for agency visitors. Ensured topics of discussion were clear cut, tipped superiors to potential points of contention, and recommended courses of action boost the mutual value of visits
- Interviewed and placed new employees. Recommended training courses and on-the-job training programs to expedite integration into the work force. Evaluated employees semi-annually to shape performance, scope chances of being promoted, and enhance marketable skills for future positions
- Recognized outstanding contributions of military, contractor, and civilian employees in award write-ups
- Counseled employees on disciplinary issues, carefully documenting all sessions
