To Whom It May Concern,

I am interested in joining the Board of Directors for the Poplar Hill Mansion.

I have always had a passion for History, in particular military history and specifically an interest in British military history with an emphasis on Royal Flying Corps and the Royal Air Force.

I have reenacted since 1979 and started out with the 71st Highland Regt. of Foot. I have presented my living history interest in the War of 1812, Revolutionary War, World War One and World War Two. I have been the founding member and unit leader for the 6th Buffs (East Kent) Regiment, 2 Squadron RFC and 601 Squadron (County of London) Royal Air Force. I have met with and am a member of the 601 Old Comrades Association in London. Our unit has the most comprehensive RAF Squadron website in existence today at 601squadron.com. I am currently a volunteer as the Reenactor Coordinator at the Military Aviation Museum in Pungo, VA.

My background is in books and publishing. After managing a Crown books in Waldorf, MD for 8 years, I worked as a Sales Rep for Simon & Schuster. I have also worked for a couple Associations in the Washington DC area and as the Publications Manager at the now defunct John Paul II Museum to which I have helped published four titles.

I currently reside in the Hooper Miles house in Newtown, with my wife Susan and my dog, Bailey.

I thank you for the consideration and feel I would bring not only my experience in Living History, but business skills I have learned over the years which may be a help to the Board.

Sincerely,

Scott G. Rall
