On July 15, 2019 Salisbury City Council convened in Work Session at 4:30 p.m. in Council Chambers, Room 301 of the Government Office Building to discuss the following sole agenda item:

Extending Acting Status of two Field Operations Sanitation positions

FOps Director Tom Stevenson requested the six month extension to the acting capacity of two FOps employees. The employees were in an acting capacity, and the City's Employee Handbook required Council's approval of the extension if the acting status went beyond six months.

Council reached unanimous consensus to advance the resolution to the next legislative agenda.

Adjournment

Ms. Jackson announced that Joshua Copeland, son of Bishop George A. Copeland, made it to the next round again in Sunday Best. She asked everyone to be attentive and to keep watching the show. She said he was doing an awesome job for Salisbury!

With nothing further to discuss, the Work Session adjourned at 4:33 p.m.
