MEMORANDUM

To: Julia Glanz, City Administrator
From: Andy Kitzrow, Deputy City Administrator
Subject: Accepting Donation of Deli Style Turkey Meat
Date: August 17, 2020

The City of Salisbury has created a food pantry (The Pantry) for employees to combat food insecurity and make available health food options. Through a ongoing relationship with Maryland Food Bank, the City has secured 2,000 pounds of deli style turkey meat from the food bank. This donation was made possible by Perdue Farms.

The deli style turkey meat is packaged appropriately to be distributed to City of Salisbury employees via “The Pantry”. Employees can access “The Pantry” on Wednesdays or by request.

“The Pantry” is part of THRIVE SBY which a group of initiatives for the employees of the City of Salisbury to improve their health and well-being and the workplace culture.
