Where would you like to serve?
Salisbury Historic District Commission
Why would you like to serve on this board/commission?
I have served on the HDC since 2012 and am currently the chairman of the commission. In the time that I have served on the commission I have worked to make the commission more of a partnership with residents, business owners and developers to get their projects to a place where they can move forward all the while preserving the historic character of the districts.
