Review of Minutes

A motion to accept the minutes from February's meeting was made and approved unanimously.

Guest Presentations

Christine Chestnutt, Department of Housing and Community Development shared with the committee the progress that is being made by the City in the area of homelessness. Twelve families are in housing where they pay rent and the City pays utilities. Tiny Home village has been approved and will be housing 24 men and women on Ann St. in single occupancy 8x8 structures. Buildings will be delivered in April.

Dorian Rogers, leader of NAACP at Salisbury University and spoke to the group about the threats of violence and discriminatory situations that have been happening at the University and the follow-up that has been done by students and response from University administration. Action items will be given to City and University administration.

HRAC members offered their feedback in the form of a variety of questions and comments.

The Committee also agreed that an additional meeting related to this topic might be necessary for this month.
