Mayor Day,

I would like to serve Salisbury on the Human Rights Advisory Council for the upcoming term. I have a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Salisbury University and follow national politics closely. The opportunity to join a local committee and have a positive impact on my community is a welcome challenge. Please accept my resume and this letter as an application to serve the city of Salisbury.

Thanks for your time.

Warm regards,

Profile

Excellent communicator with management skills ready for a challenging professional position utilizing my leadership, organizational and multi-tasking abilities.

Experience

Salesperson, Delmarva Printing, Inc. — April 2016 - present

Currently outside salesperson at a local printer, drive local print business to DPI, establish new clientele, generated 15 new repeat clients in under 8 months, generated increased sales each month.

Driver, L & S Shipping — August 2014 - April 2016

Delivered packages on a busy Fedex Ground route in the Delmar/Salisbury area. The route required excellent time management, organization and planning. Developed relationships with clients to maintain and grow the route.

Driver, PGT Trucking — 2011 - August 2014

Responsible for understanding Federal regulations and delivering goods on time safely. Drove an 18 wheel flatbed across the country. Efficiency and time management were critical to success.

Down to Earth Organic Farm — 2009 - 2010

Owned and operated a local farm and sold vegetables at farmer's markets.

Education

Salisbury University — Bachelor of Arts in History, 2005

North Caroline High School, Ridgely, Maryland

Skills

Excellent written and oral communication skills. At my best when multi-tasking. Experienced public speaker. Welcoming mannerisms. Quick learner, loves challenges.
