ADMINISTRATION and COUNCIL COMMENTS

Mayor Day said nice job to the team and thanked Council’s participation in the National Folk Festival. He looked forward to making it the Maryland Folk Festival next year.

Mr. Boda asked about attendance and Mayor Day said the numbers were not out yet. Mr. Boda said he helped out backstage and it was a great time had by all. NC Ribs on Wheels had some legit NC barbeque and sweet tea. He looked forward to next year's Maryland Folk Festival.

Ms. Jackson said she enjoyed the Folk Festival with her family. A lot of people stopped by the booth and asked many questions. She was thankful for the prayers for her mother, who was improving. She asked everyone to be safe, conscience and kind.

Ms. Blake said the Folk Festival was fantastic. She got some ice cream and it was nice. She said that beginning next week she was taking on another shift at the Counseling Services and needed to see if anyone could help by taking over the Library Committee as Council Representative because their meetings conflicted with her work schedule. The next meeting was October 18 from 4pm to 6pm. She could still do the Human Rights Committee because they started at 6pm. Mr. Heath said someone could switch with her as long as the time matches. If you could help that would be great. It was the first day of school for many students and she was looking forward to having a good year at Choices Academy. Please stop for the school buses. And if you're healthy enough please donate blood.

Ms. Gregory said COVID was still there and has hit her home this week. There's a new booster that's been released to deal with the more recent strains. If you are eligible please get it.

President Heath said that every year he had more fun at the Folk Festival. He echoed Ms. Blake about the blood situation. The COVID rate for Wicomico County was 12.1% only slightly higher than the state.
