SKIP THE BAG, SAVE THE RIVER.

The City of Salisbury's ban on single-use plastic bags will begin on JULY 1, 2023.

WHY THE BAN?

To reduce litter and protect our environment. Single-use plastic bags are one of the top polluters of the Wicomico River and the Chesapeake Bay.

WHO IS AFFECTED?

ALL supermarkets, corner stores, shops, convenience stores, restaurants, gas stations, and other sales outlets are prohibited from providing customers with single-use plastic bags at point of purchase.

Banned

Single-use plastic bags

Allowed

Reusable bags (no charge) and paper bags (+10¢)
