Hello and Welcome!

Thank you for your interest in Salisbury, Maryland! The City of Salisbury has taken great strides to enhance and improve the business and development process and we look forward to working with you.

Salisbury, Maryland, is strategically located on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in Wicomico County. At the heart of the City is the intersection of two major thoroughfares, Route 50 heading east/west and Route 13 heading north/south. As the “Crossroads of Delmarva,” Salisbury is the county seat of Wicomico County and is the largest city on Maryland’s Eastern Shore.

The City is committed to promoting economic and business development in Salisbury. Several areas within City limits are eligible for many of the state and local incentive programs available to new and existing entrepreneurs. This business guide is designed to educate entrepreneurs on what the general business development process is and help them bring their visions to fruition. The attraction and retention of businesses is important to our community and we want to extend a sincere thank you for your interest in the City of Salisbury.

Salisbury is located in the heart of Wicomico County, at the intersection of Routes 50 (E/W) and 13 (N/S). Wicomico County offers a rural location within two hours of Baltimore, Washington D.C, Philadelphia, and Norfolk.

Despite being the largest city on Maryland's Eastern Shore, Salisbury offers a charming small-town feel. Salisbury is a home for commerce, industry, health care, and transportation. With nearby expansive farmland and the Wicomico River coursing through our Downtown, the region is bound by both land and water.

Why Salisbury?

We are Salisbury, Maryland, and our town was born from the headwaters of the Wicomico River. This special place, nestled squarely between the beaches and the bay, has been attracting people to its stunning location for almost 300 years.

We welcome you and your business to Salisbury: The Comfortable Side of Coastal. Salisbury is a growing city with more than 32,000 residents, along with many others who come here daily to work and visit. The Salisbury, MD-DE Metropolitan Area is home to more than 400,000 people.

The City of Salisbury, home to Salisbury University, was recently named Realtor.com's No. 1 best college town for families. Salisbury was also named the 13th fastest-growing city in the U.S. and the 26th best place to retire by U.S. News & World Report.

Salisbury is a great place to get outside. The area is home to numerous parks, including the centrally-located Salisbury City Park. Within this park is the Salisbury Zoo, which is home to more than 100 animals and offers free admission. The Zoo regularly hosts events and offers educational outreach.

Downtown Salisbury is a designated Main Street Maryland community with plenty of exciting events and opportunities to live, work and play. In addition to a variety of businesses and restaurants, Downtown is home to the Wicomico Public Library's main branch, the Paul S. Sarbanes Branch, and a story walk along the river. Follow the path down to the Riverwalk Amphitheater, which plays host to concerts during the summer.

Downtown Salisbury is also home to three walking tours and is right down the street from the historic Poplar Hill Mansion. Look around to see all kinds of public art in the Downtown area. See a full list of events, including festivals, celebrations, parades and runs, on page 5.

Salisbury is also a Bicycle-Friendly Community, Tree City USA, Bee City USA and Bird City Maryland.

The Salisbury Police Department works to keep the City and its residents safe. This agency is nationally accredited through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc.

Learn more about Salisbury at DowntownSBY.com, Salisbury.MD or with a visit to our Downtown Salisbury Visitor Center.

Business Plan, Structure & Financing

The BUSINESS PLAN is a “must-do” and one of the most important steps of starting a business. It functions as a road map for decision-making and keeps business owners on track with the core mission and goals of the company. A well-written business plan projects growth and anticipates operating revenues and expenditures for up to three to five years. Business plans also play a key role in raising capital and/or securing bank financing for business startup or expansion. There are numerous resources and templates available online to assist entrepreneurs with writing a comprehensive business plan. A successful business plan includes a company description and overview, a strong marketing and financing strategy, a detailed analysis of the target industry, and a written action plan, which describes how the business intends to meet project goals.

When starting a business, an entrepreneur must choose its legal or BUSINESS STRUCTURE carefully. This is important because this decision can affect how much in taxes are paid, the personal liability of the business owner, and a business’ ability to borrow money to finance its capital and operating expenditures as the business grows. Before opening a business, an entrepreneur must choose which business structure is appropriate based on the needs of the owner(s). The most common forms of businesses structures are sole proprietorships, partnerships, and Limited Liability Corporations. Depending on which business structure the owner chooses, there are different legal and tax implications. An entrepreneur should consult with an attorney or accountant to identify which entity best suits the business.

In most cases, starting a business will require FINANCING . When financing a business, there are multiple ways an entrepreneur can obtain funding for a new business startup. It is very important to do thorough research to see what funding options will be feasible for your business and identify them in the business plan. Before pursuing financing, it is important to create a list of expenses your business can and may incur. Lenders will want to make sure you have done your due diligence.

Licensing

In consideration of your business name and concept, it is important to consult with a business lawyer in regards to licensing. Make sure to do adequate research on which licenses and permits you will need to open your business, as each business type may have different requirements. Be sure to check out the Maryland Business Express to take care of many of your State requirements. Some common ones include:

- Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN): An Employer Identification Number is a nine-digit number the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) assigns in the following format: XX-XXXXXXX. It is used to identify the tax accounts of employers and businesses who have no employees. The IRS uses this number to identify taxpayers that are required to file various business tax returns. Employers, sole proprietors, corporations, partnerships, nonprofit associations, trusts, government agencies, and other business entities use EINs. The EINs are used on all items submitted to the IRS and the Social Security Administration.

Caution: An EIN is for use only in connection with business activity. The Employer Identification Number is not to replace the use of a Social Security Number (SSN).

For additional information on Employer Identification Numbers, please check the IRS website. Additional information on the record keeping and completion of these forms is available online for businesses to review.

www.irs.gov

- State of Maryland Business License: Applications for a Maryland Business License are obtainable from the Clerk of the Circuit Court. This Clerk's Office is located at 101 N. Division St. in Downtown Salisbury. To register for a Maryland Business License, new businesses must register with the Department of Assessment and Taxation first. In some cases, you may need to bring your commercial lease for documentation.

www.wicomicocounty.org | 410-543-6551

» After receiving your Assessment/Taxation account number and the business license application, visit Wicomico County's Finance Office to pre-pay personal property taxes and the City of Salisbury Finance Office to pay personal property taxes (applicable only if your business is within City limits).

» After completing the steps listed above, a representative from the County Clerk's Office will issue a business license to the new business owner.

- City of Salisbury Business License: Many businesses are required to have a license to conduct business within the City of Salisbury. Hawkers & peddlers (including food trucks), restaurants, landlords, alarm companies, hotels, towing companies, and fortune tellers are some of the business entities that require a business license from the City. Any new businesses should contact the Office of Business Development to obtain additional information and a complete list of licensure requirements.

www.salisbury.md | 410-677-1915

- State Department of Assessment and Taxation: All new businesses in Maryland must register their business name with the State Department of Assessment and Taxation. After registration, a tax assessor evaluates all business assets for taxation before issuing a state and local business license. After the assessed taxes are paid, new businesses will receive a state-issued business license. Legal entities, such as a corporation or LLC, must also register with SDAT. These forms are available online or at the Office of Assessment and Taxation at the District Court Building on Baptist Street in Salisbury, Maryland.

www.dat.maryland.gov

- Trader's License: A Trader's License is required for selling goods and merchandise in Maryland and is applicable to both retailers and wholesalers. The fee for the license is based on the value of the commercial inventory that a business reports on their personal property return that is filed with the Maryland Department of Assessments and Taxation.

www.dat.maryland.gov

- Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation: In some cases, the DLLR requires licenses for certain types of businesses and occupations. The DLLR is a major occupational and professional licensing agency in the State of Maryland and enforces commerce, employment, workplace, and safety laws. Please call or visit their website for information on which occupations require a license.

www.dllr.state.md.us | 1-888-218-5925

- State Sales & Use Tax ID/Employer Tax Accounts: Many businesses are required to collect and remit sales tax. You should contact the state comptroller to see if it is required for the business.

www.marylandtaxes.com | 1-800-638-2937

- Wicomico County Board of License Commissioners: This board administers licenses to sell alcohol and regulates alcohol sales. 410-548-4835

- Wicomico County Health Department: In Wicomico County, the Health Department is responsible for managing the following services: permanent and temporary food services, food services facility licensing, septic and well applications, and burning permits.

Location & Permits

Selecting a location for a new or existing business is an important component of an entrepreneur's business plan. Depending on the services offered by the business, a traditional brick and mortar facility may not be essential for service to its customer base. Before committing to a space, please contact the appropriate offices.

- Choosing a location: When choosing a location for your business, it is recommended that new and existing business owners contact a commercial leasing or sales representative for information on available listings. There are also several websites with databases of available commercial locations. Before leasing or purchasing commercial space, research the rental rates or purchase price of commercial facilities within the business plan's operating budget. Also take into consideration the cost of any additional work needed you will have to do on the property.
- Planning & Zoning: Please review the City of Salisbury's Zoning Map & Code to make sure the business use is approved at the location you are interested in, and review the regulations that are in place for that area.
- Building Permits: A building permit is required for the construction, reconstruction, renovation, remodeling, moving, demolition, structural alteration or change in the use of a building or structure that is or will be affixed to the ground. In order to make any changes to a building, whether it be structural, electrical, or mechanical – you should contact the Infrastructure & Development Department to get a permit.

City of Salisbury Infrastructure & Development Department

The Infrastructure & Development Department is responsible for administering all infrastructure and development projects in the City. The Department is the one stop for developers entering the City to have projects reviewed through all phases including planning, engineering, traffic control, building permits, fire marshal and construction inspection.

Downtown Promotional Opportunities

•Downtown Salisbury e-giftcard program: Downtown SBY Dollars is an e-gift card program featuring a card that can be redeemed at participating Downtown Salisbury businesses. Businesses in or within 0.5 miles of Downtown Salisbury are eligible to participate and must opt in, but there is no cost to sign up. Participating businesses must have a physical point of sale system and be able to key in "not-present" Mastercards.

For more details or to sign up, contact info@downtownsalisbury.org or visit <https://bit.ly/DowntownSBYGC>.

•Downtown Salisbury website - www.downtownsby.com:

»Business listings: The City lists all shops, eateries, health/beauty businesses, recreation businesses, and attractions under the businesses tab on the Downtown page. To have your business added, you must be in or within 0.5 miles of Downtown Salisbury.

»Business events: If you are hosting any events in your business, we are happy to add them to the Downtown master calendar on the Downtown website.

»Jobs: If your business is hiring, we will post job listings on the "Work Here" section of the website.

»Downtown Living: If you have an apartment, house, or other building available for rent in the Downtown corridor, we will add it to the "Live Here" section of the website.

Please send any aforementioned information, including photos, descriptors and costs, to info@downtownsalisbury.org for inclusion on the website.

•Downtown Salisbury printed maps: The City prints trifold maps of the Downtown Business and Attractions corridor on an annual basis, typically in July. Included on the map is a listing of all businesses in the "Eats & Drinks," "Shopping," "Health & Beauty," "Arts & Music," "Attractions," and "Services" sectors, as well as general Downtown information. These maps are distributed throughout the Downtown corridor and to key locations for information seekers (the airport, hotels, etc.).

•Downtown Salisbury social media: The City strives to support our businesses on all of our social media channels. We regularly scan our social media feeds for posts from your business and will re-share as a story (Facebook/Instagram). We may not see or share every post your business puts out, but if there is something you'd consider newsworthy, please message the Downtown page directly for consideration. A copy of the City's social media policy can be found at <https://bit.ly/SBYSocialMediaPolicy>.

»Downtown Weekend Ahead: Each Friday, we compile a list of the events going on in the Downtown corridor. We typically search them out, but if there's something specific you'd like to ensure is included, please contact us directly.

»#MoveInMonday: If you'd like your vacant Downtown commercial or residential listing featured on Downtown social media, we run a series on Mondays to feature available opportunities.

»Business opening & anniversary posts: the City is excited to celebrate the success of your business by sharing your opening and milestone anniversaries. If your business is just opening or celebrating their 1st, 5th, 10th, 15th, 20th, 25th, 30th, etc., anniversary - please let us know and we will make a special visit.

•Co-Op Marketing Opportunities:

»The Downtown district offers plenty of opportunities to band together with fellow entrepreneurs in the area. Whether it's coordinated scavenger hunts, collaborative shopping events, or annual celebrations like Small Business Saturday - the City is excited to work with the business community.

»The City is happy to coordinate paid advertising campaigns (TV, radio, billboard, etc.) between Downtown businesses on an as-requested basis and may offer some opportunities of its own. Opportunities are typically emailed out, so be sure to contact info@downtownsalisbury.org to be added to our email list.

•Events: Many events are held annually in the Downtown area, by a myriad of different event organizers. Opportunities to engage with event goers vary from event to event.

•Green Business Certification: The City of Salisbury's Sustainability Advisory Committee (Green Team) oversees the Green Business initiative. Participating businesses will receive a sticker to be placed at the business' point of entry and a picture with the mayor to be shared on social media. Additionally, participants will have their logo added to the City's website under a new section touting green businesses. In order to qualify, a business must meet a number of criteria to which the Green Team has assigned point values. A business' total score determines whether they are bronze (10-14 points), silver (15-19 points), or gold (20+ points) level.
