A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SALISBURY, MARYLAND REQUESTING APPROVAL OF AN UPDATE OF A MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT BY AND BETWEEN WICOMICO COUNTY, MARYLAND, THE CITY OF SALISBURY, THE CITY OF FRUITLAND AND SALISBURY UNIVERSITY.

WHEREAS, the parties to this Mutual Aid Agreement have set forth the circumstances under which the law enforcement officers of each agency may lawfully go beyond their current jurisdictional limits to engage in law enforcement activities to ensure the health, welfare and safety of the residents of the County, Salisbury, Fruitland and the University; and

WHEREAS, it is mutually understood and agreed between the parties that when any law enforcement officer of a signatory to the Agreement goes into another governmental jurisdiction within Wicomico County and outside the officer's normal jurisdiction, for any purposes set forth in the Agreement, such officer shall have all the police authority, immunities from liability, and exemption from laws, ordinances and regulations, and have all the pension, relief, disability and worker's compensation benefits enjoyed by such officer to the same extent as if such officer were performing his or her duties within the limits of his or her employing jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, each party hereto does hereby agree to waive any and all claims against other parties hereto which may arise out of any activity provided for in the Agreement outside their respective jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, it is mutually understood that this Agreement does not affect in any way the existing Police Mutual Aid Agreement by and between Wicomico County, the Mayor and City Council of Salisbury, the Town of Delmar and the City of Fruitland, dated January 11, 2000, and any amendments thereto.
