Dear Mayor:

I am writing today to submit my name for consideration for the vacancy on the City Park Committee.

I grew up in Salisbury and worked for The Daily Times after graduating from the University of Maryland in the late 1970s. My wife, Jane Langrall Robinson, and I have recently moved back to Salisbury from Columbia, SC, where I had been working for the local daily newspaper.

Both Jane and I have a deep affection for the City Park. (That's where I proposed to her.) She grew up across the street from the zoo and we were fortunate last fall to purchase that house when it came on the market in our transition back to Salisbury. While we are a short distance from the city limits, the appeal for applicants makes no mention a member must be a city resident. (We do have municipal utility service, I should note.)

Jane and I learned to play tennis in the City Park, and I've even pitched a few horseshoes there, too, long ago. I played Little League baseball in the now defunct field near our wonderful zoo, where one of my best friends used to work. I also learned to swim in the east branch of the river near the bandstand (when that was allowed) and I participated in a number of fishing derbies there as well when I was a youngster.

Jane and I cannot believe we are so lucky to be City Park "neighbors" and this vacancy on the committee seems like an opportunity for our family to get reacquainted with our hometown and contribute something back to our community.

If you have any questions, I can be reached at (443) 859-7652.

Thank you,

Bill Robinson
