Dear Mayor Ireton,

November 13, 2010

I am writing this letter to apply for a position on the Friends of Poplar Hill Board at Poplar Hill Mansion.

I have been connected to the mansion through my association with the Four Seasons Garden Club since moving to Salisbury in 1988. The club's many projects, including the holiday decorating of the mansion and the planting and upkeep of the serpentine garden, have reinforced my interest in historical buildings and their importance to a community. It is heartwarming to witness the wonderful improvements to Poplar Hill these past few years, which distinguish her as a truly grand house.

I am familiar with colonial-era houses having spent a portion of my childhood living in one, my grandmother's, which dated to 1795, and coincidentally included a doctor's office. That house is located in Libertytown, in Frederick County, Maryland, and is one of many Federal-style homes built in the county during that time frame.

I attended schools in Baltimore City, Frederick and Baltimore Counties and graduated from Hood College with a degree in Early Childhood Education and Fine Arts. I then travelled with my husband, Henry, to many parts of the country in connection with his engineering projects. It was nice to return to Maryland after being away for many years and we enjoy living on McBriety Circle in Salisbury.

I've served on Boards of various gardening organizations. I am a Master Flower Show judge, floral designer, and landscape painter. I will strive to be a helpful addition to the Poplar Hill Board for the betterment of Poplar Hill Mansion.

Thank you for your consideration of my application.

Yours truly,

Jane Dibbern
