Dear Mayor Ireton and City Council,

I would like to renew my membership to the Board of the Friends of Poplar Hill Mansion. Since coming on board, I have been the Chair of Mansion Improvement, and Acquisitions. I have been available to assist with supervision of the exterior repair of the mansion, getting contractor bids from workers for many projects at the mansion, traveling to find blown glass replacements for the windows as well as doing many simple repairs, serving and participating in events. I have enjoyed working with our fine group of board Members toward publicizing and marketing Poplar Hill Mansion and would very much like to continue as a board member at Poplar Hill Mansion and look forward to are many prospective projects. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, Dean Davis
